Note 1.—Column 1 is to be filled in only on the first line of each dwelling-house, and will be used to number dwelling-houses in the order in which they are visited by the Enumerator.

Note 2.—Column 2 is to be filled in only on the first line of each family, and will be used to number families in the order in which they are visited.

Note 3.—Column 3 is to be filled in with the name of every person living in each family on the first day of June, 1880, and the name of every person who died in such family during the year ending on that day.

Note 4.—Column 4 is to be filled in to show the relationship of each person to the head of the family.

Note 5.—Column 5 is to be filled in with the letter "W," "B," "M," or "C," as the person belongs to the white, black, mulatto, or Chinese race.

Note 6.—Column 6 is to be filled in with the letter "M" or "F," as the person is male or female.

Note 7.—Column 7 is to be filled in with the age of each person at his last birthday prior to June 1, 1880. If any person died during the year, his age at death is to be given. Children born between June 1, 1879, and June 1, 1880, are to be returned as of no age. Infants under one year old are to be returned in fractions of a year, thus: 2 months, 1/12; 3 months, 1/4; 6 months, 1/2; 9 months, 3/4. Fractions less than 1/12 may be omitted.

Note 8.—Column 8 is to be filled in with the profession, occupation, or trade of each person, if he have any; if a child or without occupation, the word "at home," or "at school," as the case may be, is to be written.

Note 9.—Column 9 is to be filled in with the number of months during the census year in which each person has been employed at any gainful occupation.

Note 10.—Column 10 is to be filled in with the number of months during the census year in which each person has been unemployed, but able to work, and seeking employment.

Note 11.—Column 11 is to be filled in with the number of months during the census year in which each person has been unemployed, but able to work, and not seeking employment.

Note 12.—Column 12 is to be filled in only in case the person is unable to attend to ordinary business on the first day of June, 1880, and is to be filled in with the word "sick," "disabled," or "crippled," as the case may be.

Note 13.—Column 13 is to be filled in with the word "deaf," "dumb," "blind," "insane," or "idiotic," as the case may be, if the person is such.

Note 14.—Column 14 is to be filled in with the name of the State, Territory, or country in which each person was born.

Note 15.—Column 15 is to be filled in with the name of the State, Territory, or country in which the father of each person was born.

Note 16.—Column 16 is to be filled in with the name of the State, Territory, or country in which the mother of each person was born.

Note 17.—Column 17 is to be filled in with the word "yes" or "no," as the case may be, to show whether either parent of each person was of foreign birth.

Note 18.—Column 18 is to be filled in with the word "yes" or "no," as the case may be, to show whether each person can read.

Note 19.—Column 19 is to be filled in with the word "yes" or "no," as the case may be, to show whether each person can write.

Note 20.—Column 20 is to be filled in with the word "yes" or "no," as the case may be, to show whether each person is a male citizen of the United States of twenty-one years or upwards.

Note 21.—Column 21 is to be filled in with the word "yes" or "no," as the case may be, to show whether each male citizen of the United States of twenty-one years or upwards has the right to vote at any election.

Note 22.—Column 22 is to be filled in with the word "yes" or "no," as the case may be, to show whether each male citizen of the United States of twenty-one years or upwards has been denied the right to vote at any election.

Note 23.—Column 23 is to be filled in with the word "yes" or "no," as the case may be, to show whether each male citizen of the United States of twenty-one years or upwards has been denied the right to vote at any election on account of participation in the rebellion.

Note 24.—Column 24 is to be filled in with the word "yes" or "no," as the case may be, to show whether each male citizen of the United States of twenty-one years or upwards has been denied the right to vote at any election on account of participation in the rebellion.

Note 25.—Column 25 is to be filled in with the word "yes" or "no," as the case may be, to show whether each male citizen of the United States of twenty-one years or upwards has been denied the right to vote at any election on account of participation in the rebellion.

Note 26.—Column 26 is to be filled in with the word "yes" or "no," as the case may be, to show whether each male citizen of the United States of twenty-one years or upwards has been denied the right to vote at any election on account of participation in the rebellion.
